(A) When Held: A pretrial shall be scheduled after the case management conference in all contested divorces and cases involving the allocation of parental rights and responsibilities, or in any other matter that the Court determines is appropriate.

(B) Purpose: The purpose of a pretrial is to consider a resolution, if possible. If a resolution is not possible, the parties shall try to reduce factual and legal issues of the case. At the time of the pretrial, the attorney or self-represented litigant must be prepared to:

- (1) Admit to undisputed facts;
- (2) Discuss the disputed legal issues;
- (3) Agree to the authentication of documents and other exhibits to be introduced at trial;
- (4) Exchange reports of expert witnesses, if not already done; and,
- (5) Exchange witness lists.

(C) Exhibits and Witness Lists: Parties must file final exhibits and witness lists by the pretrial date. Parties must identify and provide opposing parties copies of all exhibits and witness information, including expert witness information. Exhibits or witnesses not identified at the pretrial will not be allowed at trial without the agreement of the parties or by Court order.

(D) Audio Recordings: Any party intending to offer an audio recording as evidence shall provide a verbatim transcript of all statements made by any persons contained within the recording. If a party intends to offer an audio recording of only a part of a conversation or statement, the party shall provide a verbatim transcript of the entire statement or conversation to the Court and opposing counsel.

The verbatim transcript shall contain a certification by the person transcribing the statement or conversation that the verbatim transcript is a true record of the statement or conversation contained within. The transcriber shall further state his or her place of employment, address, and telephone number.

Any party intending to offer an audio recording as evidence shall deliver a CD or DVD of the recording and copies of the transcript to the Court and opposing counsel no later than four hours prior to offering the recording at trial.

12.03 Docket and Case Status Responsibility

It is the responsibility of attorneys and self-represented parties to be aware of and knowledgeable about the docket, deadlines, filing entries, hearing dates, and case status. Case files are maintained at the Clerk of Court's office. The files are available by computer for electronic public access for recordkeeping purposes, at www.lakecountyohio.gov/coc.

12.04 Objections

(A) Parties shall file Objections to a Magistrate's Decision within 14 days from the date the decision is filed with the Clerk of Courts, according to Rule 53(D)(3)(b)(i) of the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure. The Clerk of Court's docket is available online at www.lakecountyohio.gov/coc.

Objections must be specific and state with particularity the grounds for the objection.

The objecting party shall file the transcript or affidavit with the Court within 30 days after filing objections, unless the Court extends the time in writing for preparation of the transcript, for good cause shown. If a party files timely objections prior to the date on which a transcript is prepared, the party may seek leave of Court to supplement the objections.

The Court may set objections for hearing.

(B) Transcripts are to be filed with the Clerk of Courts before the objection hearing, unless good cause is shown. The party requesting the transcript is responsible for paying the transcription fee.

(C) The Court in its discretion may make determinations on objections without a hearing.

12.05 Motions to Set Aside a Magistrate's Order

Parties shall file Motions to Set Aside a Magistrate's Order within 10 days from the date the order is filed with the Clerk of Courts, according to Rule 53(D)(2)(b) of the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure. Rules 26 through 37 of the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure apply in any action before this Court, including post decree motions filed according to Rule 75(N) of the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure.

13.02 Policy

It is the policy of this Rule to encourage open, prompt, and complete discovery, and to minimize the Court's involvement in the discovery process.

13.03 Mandatory Disclosure

Each party in an action for divorce, annulment, or legal separation must disclose to the other party all financial information and documents, including:

- (A) All pension and profit-sharing plans, including the most recent plan summary of the participant's account;

13.04 Disclosure Deadline

Each party shall make full disclosure within the discovery deadlines set during the case management conference, or at the pretrial for post decree motions, unless the Court orders otherwise. Failure to do so may subject that party to sanctions, including a Motion to Compel and an award of attorney fees, as set forth in Rule 37 of the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure.

13.05 Filings Related to Discovery

(A) Required Filings: Discovery filed with the Court must include a Proof of Service, either included in the documents or filed separately. The Proof of Service must:

- (1) State the date and manner of service; and,

The Clerk of Courts shall not accept any documents for filing which do not conform to the requirements of this Rule.

- (5) Answers and responses to depositions or interrogatories.

13.06 Motions for Protective Order

Parties shall file a Motion for a Protective Order no later than 14 days before the date on which response to a discovery request is due or the date of a scheduled deposition. A party may request additional time to file a Motion for a Protective Order only if the party can show that it was not possible to file the motion within the required time period. The motion must clearly state:

- (1) The basis of the protective order; and,
- (2) The date on which the response to the discovery request is due, or the date of a scheduled deposition.

13.07 Authentication

Parties are not permitted to object to the authentication of any document in any Court hearing if:

(A) The requirement of authentication or identification is satisfied by providing a copy of the document to the opposing party 14 days prior to the hearing; and,

(B) The party opposing authentication of the document fails to file a written objection to the authentication of the document at least seven days before the hearing, explaining the specific legal objection raised.

The Ohio Rules of Evidence apply to the admissibility of an authenticated document.

Rule 14: Mediation (Revised Eff. 3/17/19)

14.01 When Ordered

At any time after a party files a complaint in an action for divorce, legal separation, or annulment, or at any time after a party files a post decree motion involving the allocation of parental rights and responsibilities, the Court may, upon its own motion, order the parties into mediation.

The Court's Mediation Department also accepts voluntary requests from parties who wish to mediate post decree issues involving parental rights and responsibilities without having to file a motion. The Voluntary Mediation Program is not available whenever a party is seeking to modify child support and/or health insurance, and/or tax exemptions. The filing of a motion to modify is required.

The Court incorporates by reference R.C. 2710, The Uniform Mediation Act (UMA); R.C. 3109.052, Mediation of Differences as to the Allocation of Parental Rights and Responsibilities; and Rule 16 of the Ohio Supreme Court Rules of Superintendence. All definitions found in the UMA are adopted by this Court through this Rule.

14.02 Procedure

(A) The Court shall order cases to the Court's in-house Mediation Department. Parties may also use an outside Mediator with prior approval from the Court. To use an outside Mediator, parties must file a motion with affidavits attached, stating that the parties agree on both the Mediator and how the Mediator is to be paid.

(B) If the Mediation Department determines that the case is appropriate for mediation, the Court may permit both parties to participate in mediation for a period of time, as determined by the Court.

(C) An Order referring the parties to mediation stays (or temporarily stops) the proceedings in Court. Proceedings not stopped by a Mediation Order are:

- (1) Temporary support hearings;
- (2) Issuance of temporary support orders; and,
- (3) Scheduling and discovery matters.

Mediation sessions are held until all possible issues are resolved in a manner that is mutually agreeable to the parties, or until the Mediator determines that continued efforts would not be productive. The Court may order the parties to return to mediation at any time.

If the parties fail to reach a full agreement during mediation, the Court will not permit any attempt to bring in discussions from the mediation. Matters discussed in mediation are confidential and are not permitted in Court proceedings.

(D) The Mediator shall do the following:

- (1) Keep all verbal and written communications confidential;
- (2) Provide the parties and their attorneys with a summary of any agreement reached, or a statement that the mediation has terminated without agreement;
- (3) Inform the Court of who attended the mediation, and whether the case has settled. If the case has not settled, the Mediator shall inform the Court of whether the case is scheduled for further mediation or if it will be returned to the Court for further proceedings. The Mediator shall not provide any other information to the Court unless all parties who hold a mediation privilege, including the Mediator, have consented to such disclosure; and,
- (4) Notify the Court, for purposes of scheduling, that mediation has been terminated.

(E) Any Mediator providing services for the Court shall use procedures that will:

- (1) Ensure that the parties are allowed to participate in mediation. If they wish, the parties' attorneys and other individuals may be allowed to accompany them and participate in the mediation, as provided in the Uniform Mediation Act (UMA);
- (2) Screen for domestic violence, both before and during mediation, by using a three-tiered screening method along with the use of appropriate screening tools;
- (3) Encourage appropriate referrals to attorneys and other support services for all parties, including victims and suspected victims of domestic violence; and,
- (4) Prohibit the use of mediation in the following circumstances:
 - (a) Prosecuting or adjudicating domestic violence;
 - (b) Determining whether to grant, modify, or terminate a protection order;
 - (c) Determining the terms and conditions of a protection order; and,
 - (d) Determining the penalty for violation of a protection order.

(F) Parties may use mediation in a subsequent divorce or custody case even if the case may result in the termination of provisions of a protection order.

(G) Mediation may proceed when violence or fear of violence is alleged, suspected, or present, only if the Mediator has specialized training, as set forth in Loc. R. 14.04, and ensures that the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The person who is or may be the victim of domestic violence is fully informed, both verbally and in writing, about the mediation process, his or her right to decline participation in the mediation process, and his or her option to have a support person present at the mediation sessions;

(2) The Mediator concludes that the parties have the capacity to mediate without fear of coercion or control;

(3) The Mediator uses the procedures defined by the Court's Mediation Department to provide for the safety of the parties, the non-party participants, and the Mediator. Appropriate procedures are in place to provide for the safety of the person who is or may be the victim of domestic violence or coercion between the parties;

(4) The Mediator uses the procedures identified by the Court's Mediation Department to terminate mediation if the Mediator believes there is a continued threat of domestic violence or coercion between the parties; and,

(5) The Mediator uses procedures defined by the Court's Mediation Department to ensure that the Court has issued written findings of fact, as required by Ohio law, to refer certain cases involving domestic violence to mediation.

The use of mediation in the above situations is addressed on a case-by-case basis.

(H) According to the UMA, all parties may have their attorney, as well as other support persons attend the mediation session. The Mediator has the right not to conduct the mediation session if a party insists on bringing a person to the session that the Mediator believes is inappropriate or would harm the process. The Court has the right to require the attendance of attorneys if the Court determines that it is appropriate and necessary for the process, and is consistent with Ohio law. Unless required by the Court, attorneys are not required to attend the mediation session. The Guardian ad litem shall attend the mediation session if requested by the Court or by either party. Parties shall not bring children to mediation sessions.

(I) The parties and their attorneys have a duty to disclose information to the Mediation Department, and have a duty to participate in any screening required by Rule 16 of the Ohio Supreme Court Rules of Superintendence, where the opposing parties:

- (1) Are related by blood, adoption, or marriage;
- (2) Have resided in a common residence; and,
- (3) Have known or alleged domestic abuse at any time prior to the mediation.

14.03 Agreements

(A) The Mediator shall reduce to writing, and parties shall sign, any agreement reached in mediation. Any agreement reached during mediation shall not be binding upon the parties until approved by the Court, which shall consider the best interests of the children.

(B) If the agreement is approved by the parties and attorneys, the Court shall either:

- (1) Hold a confirmation hearing to approve the terms of the agreement; or,
- (2) Adopt a Judgment Entry submitted by the parties for the Court's review and approval.

If the Court does not adopt the agreement, the Court shall not consider the mediation agreement for any other purpose.

(C) If the parties do not reach an agreement, the Mediator shall issue a report stating only that the parties did not reach an agreement, and the case shall be returned to the Court's trial docket.

14.04 Qualifications

Any Mediator employed by the Court, or whom the parties retain as an outside Mediator, shall comply with the following minimum qualifications:

(A) General qualifications and training:

- (1) Comply with the qualifications set forth in Rule 16 of the Ohio Supreme Court Rules of Superintendence;
- (2) Possess a Bachelor's Degree or equivalent education or experience satisfactory to the Court, and at least two years of professional experience with families. Professional experience with families includes mediation, counseling, casework, legal representation in family law matters, or such equivalent experience as is satisfactory to the Court;
- (3) Complete at least 12 hours of basic mediation training or equivalent experience as a mediator that is satisfactory to the Court; and,

(4) After completing the above training, complete at least 40 hours of specialized family or divorce mediation training which has been approved by the Dispute Resolution Section of the Supreme Court of Ohio.

(B) Specific qualifications and training for domestic abuse:

A Mediator employed by the Court, or whom the parties retain as an outside Mediator, shall complete at least 14 hours of specialized training in domestic abuse and mediation through a training program approved by the Dispute Resolution Section of the Supreme Court of Ohio. A Mediator who has not completed this specialized training may mediate these cases only if he or she co-mediate with a Mediator who has completed the specialized training.

14.05 Confidentiality

(A) Statements the parties make during mediation shall be considered compromise negotiations and shall not be admissible as evidence, according to Rule 408 of the Ohio Rules of Evidence. Everyone attending a mediation session, including attorneys and Guardians ad litem, shall sign a Memorandum of Understanding for Mediation, which confirms the confidentiality requirement. The Mediator:

- (1) Shall not be required to disclose any statements or discussions which occurred during the mediation, except as required by Ohio law;
- (2) Shall not be called as a witness for any purpose; and,
- (3) Shall not be subject to subpoena to testify at any proceeding, except as required by Ohio law.

This Rule does not prevent the Mediator from testifying as to a crime committed in his or her presence, or from complying with any law requiring the reporting of child abuse.

(B) All communications relating to the mediation or made during the mediation process shall be governed by the privileges described in the Uniform Mediation Act, Ohio law, and the Ohio Rules of Evidence.

14.06 Fees Related to Mediation Services

The Lake County Domestic Relations Court Mediation Department does not charge the parties for its professional mediation services. At the conclusion of the mediation, the Clerk of Courts assesses court costs for the parties' filings. The Clerk does this in every case.

If the case is referred to a Mediator other than one provided by the Lake County Domestic Relations Court Mediation Department, the parties shall agree upon the Mediator and shall share the cost of mediation in such a proportion as they may agree. Cases using an outside Mediator must comply with the time frames and procedures discussed in this Rule.

A written report may be accessed in person by making an appointment with the Director of Court Services. A report can also be accessed by phone by the parties or their legal representatives. A copy of the final report shall be provided to the Court at the hearing. The Court shall consider the recommendation of the Guardian ad litem in determining the best interest of the children only when the report or a portion of the report has been admitted as an exhibit, unless the parties waive the filing of a report.

15.04 Compensation

(A) Guardians ad litem shall be compensated at the rate of $125.00 per hour for all reasonable and necessary time expended.

(B) The Court shall order one or both parties to post a cash bond with the Clerk of Courts when the Court appoints the Guardian ad litem. If the Court determines that the parties are unable to post a bond, the Court may issue an order waiving this requirement. The Clerk shall hold the bond as security toward payment of the Guardian ad litem's fees.

(C) When the Guardian ad litem files a Motion for Fees, the Court may conduct a hearing to determine if the fee sought by the Guardian ad litem is reasonable and necessary. The Court shall also determine the amount each party shall contribute toward the fee. The Court's Order for fees shall also require the Clerk of Courts to release the bond amount to the Guardian ad litem.

Rule 16: Family Education Programs

16.01 Purpose

(A) “For Our Children”: The purpose of the “For Our Children” parent educational program is to help parents be aware of the changes and stresses ending their marriage can have on their children.

(B) “What About Me”: The purposes of the “What About Me” education program for children ages 6-12 years old are to:

- (1) Let children know they are not the only family whose parents are ending their marriage;

(D) The attorney who requests fees or expenses may testify in support of the motion. Expert testimony is not required to prove that attorney fees are reasonable.

17.02 Failure to Comply with this Rule

Failure to comply with the provisions of this Rule shall result in the Court’s denial of the motion for attorney fees or expenses. A party may show, and the Court may find for good cause shown, that under the circumstances, the party requesting fees could not reasonably comply with the provisions of this Rule.

18.02 Dissolutions and Other Uncontested Cases

(A) Decrees for Dissolution of Marriage: Petitioners shall provide decrees for dissolution of marriage to the Court at the time of the hearing for the dissolution of marriage. The decree shall state that the Petitioners have made a full and complete disclosure of all:

The filing fee has been set by the Court, is on file at the Lake County Clerk of Courts, and is available at www.lakecountyohio.gov/coc. A moving party may file a request to waive the filing fee for financial reasons on the Court-approved form.

(B) Filings from the Lake County Department of Job and Family Services or the Lake County Child Support Enforcement Division are exempt from this requirement. Certain litigants may also be exempt from this requirement based on Rule or Ohio law.

(C) The Court may order either or both parties to pay court costs, or past due balances on unpaid costs, at any point during the course of the proceeding, as the Court may consider necessary and appropriate. Parties who fail to pay may be subject to sanctions, including the striking of the pleadings or a contempt citation.

20.02 Additional Fees

According to Ohio Revised Code Section 2303.201, the Court may determine that additional filing fees are necessary to fund certain special programs and projects. The Court may occasionally require payment of additional fees for the filing of actions or pleadings.

20.03 Indigency (Poverty)

(A) The Court may waive the filing fee requirement if a party files an Affidavit of Indigence, stating that:

- (1) The party is without funds or assets, or the ability to obtain funds or assets to pay the filing fee;
- (2) A statement of the party's financial situation, if not already prepared as part of the case; and,
- (3) A certification by the attorney, if the party is represented, that no or nominal attorney fees have been paid or will be paid as a retainer.

(B) A party's filing of an Affidavit of Indigence does not relieve the party from liability for the payment of costs. If at any time the Court determines that the party who filed an Affidavit of Indigence is able to pay the filing fee, the Court may order that party to pay the deposit within a reasonable time.

Rule 21: Postings of Notices for Service by Publication

Rule 22: Posting of Notices for Records Management

On a yearly basis, the Court shall compile a list of cases in which the Court intends to destroy exhibits, depositions, or transcripts, unless retrieved by the parties. The Court shall post this list annually at the locations listed in Loc. R. 21.04. This Rule is in addition to the posting requirements of the Ohio Supreme Court Rules of Superintendence.

Rule 23A: Standard Parenting Time Guidelines

23A.01 In General

The Court strongly encourages parents to create their own cooperative parenting time schedules tailored to the specific needs of their children, the parents' respective work hours, and the collective needs of each household. To help create a workable schedule, parents are urged to read "Planning for Parenting Time: Ohio's Guide for Parents Living Apart," available on the Domestic Relations website at www.lcdrect.org. There are sample parenting time schedules in the guide.

For parents who are unable to agree on a parenting schedule, the Court sets forth in this Rule a plan to ensure the minor children have frequent and consistent contact with both parents.

The Court's plan reflects:

- (1) The preservation and development of a close relationship between the children and each parent; and,
- (2) Consideration of the changing developmental needs of the children.

If parents cannot agree on their own plan or the Court's plan due to objections because of special circumstances (such as travel time, work requirements, substance abuse, mental illness, or violence), the parents must be prepared to present specific facts in a hearing for a proposed plan which considers the best interests of the children, not the parents.

23A.02 Infants: 0 – 2 Months

For infants younger than two months of age, the nonresidential parent may spend time with the infant in the residential parent’s home three days per week, for two hours per visit. If the parents cannot agree as to days and times, the following schedule shall be followed: the nonresidential parent shall have parenting time each Sunday from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., and each Tuesday and Thursday evening, from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

23A.03 Infants: 2 Months – Age 2

Commencing at age two months, parenting time can be at the nonresidential parent’s residence.

(B) From 13 months through 23 months, the nonresidential parent shall spend time with the children as follows: every Tuesday and Thursday evening from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., and on alternating weekends, from Saturday at 10:00 a.m. to Sunday at 6:00 p.m.

In odd-numbered years, the nonresidential parent shall spend time with the children from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on President’s Day, Memorial Day, Thanksgiving, and Christmas Eve, and the residential parent shall spend time with the children on Easter, July 4th, Labor Day, and Christmas Day.

In even-numbered years, the residential parent shall spend time with the children beginning at 5:00 p.m. on New Year’s Eve to 11:00 a.m. on New Year’s Day, and in odd-numbered years, the nonresidential parent shall spend time with the children from 5:00 p.m. on New Year’s Eve to 11:00 a.m. on New Year’s Day.

(D) Older Siblings: If there are older brothers and sisters of an infant child, the parenting time, including holidays, set forth below for children ages two years through 12 years shall govern infant visitation, once the infant is two months old.

23A.04 Children: Age 2 – 12

The nonresidential parent (NR) shall have the following parenting times in a two week period:

Every Monday, following the residential parent’s weekend parenting time, (or any other day by agreement) from after school until Tuesday morning, either at the drop-off of the children at school or day care, or to the other parent by 9:00 a.m., if the children are not attending school or day care.

*Unless the weekend following is that parent's regularly-scheduled weekend, in which case the parenting time shall continue through that parent's regularly-scheduled weekend.

In even-numbered years, the residential parent shall have parenting time during Spring Break, and in odd-numbered years the nonresidential parent shall have parenting time during Spring Break. If Easter falls during Spring Break, the parent having the children for Spring Break shall have the children for Easter. If Easter does not fall during Spring Break, the parents shall alternate Easter according to the schedule above.

(E) Winter Break:

Winter Break shall be divided equally between the parents. In even-numbered years, the residential parent shall have parenting time with the children during the first half, and the nonresidential parent shall have parenting time with the children during the second half of Winter Break. In odd-numbered years, the nonresidential parent shall have parenting time with the children during the first half and the residential parent shall have parenting time during the second half of Winter Break. Winter Break begins at 6:00 p.m. on the last day of school and ends at the drop-off of the children at school after the last day of Winter Break. Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, New Year's Eve, and New Year's Day shall not be included in calculating the equal number of days to which each parent is entitled.

(F) Days of Special Meaning:

Father's Day shall be spent with Father; Mother's Day shall be spent with Mother. Parenting time shall be from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., or as otherwise agreed.

The child's birthday shall be spent with the parent who has regularly-scheduled parenting time on that day.

(G) Extended Summer Parenting Time, Summer Vacations, and Travel: Each parent shall have half of the children's summer vacation, provided that the last full week shall be spent with the residential parent. Parenting time shall occur on a one week on, one week off basis, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Sunday and extending until the following Sunday at 6:00 p.m. Weekly parenting time with the nonresidential parent shall begin on the first full week following the last day of school.

Each parent is entitled to a two week period of uninterrupted parenting time with the minor children each summer. In even-numbered years, the Mother shall have the first choice and shall choose her two week uninterrupted parenting time by advising the Father of that time period on or before May 1st of that year. In odd-numbered years, the Father shall have the first choice and shall choose his two week uninterrupted parenting time by advising the Mother of that time period on or before May 1st of that year. Neither parent shall have more than a two week, or fourteen day, period of uninterrupted parenting time during the summer.

For any vacation or holiday travel, each parent must provide the other parent with information about the destination, times of arrival and departure, and methods of travel. If there are children in different age brackets, the provisions for the oldest age bracket shall apply to all children, except that there shall be no extended parenting time or vacation time for a child under two years of age.

If summer school is necessary for a child to pass to the next grade, the child is required to attend summer school classes. Parents may schedule summer extended parenting time during a mandatory summer school period, but the child must attend all classes.

Child support will NOT be reduced during summer vacation periods specified in this provision.

23A.05 Teenagers: Age 13 – 18

(A) The nonresidential parent's regular parenting time on alternating weekends, midweek, and during holidays, as well as extended time during the summer months described in Loc. R. 23A.04 shall apply to teenagers. Parents are urged to understand a child's normal social development during these sensitive years, when the teenager normally spends less time with either parent.

(B) In exercising parenting time with a teenager, the nonresidential parent shall make reasonable efforts to accommodate a teenager's participation in the teenager's academic, extracurricular, and social activities.

23A.06 Rules Regarding Parenting Time

(A) Conflicting Schedules: In the event of any conflict between parenting time schedules, the following is the order of priority:

- (1) Holidays;
- (2) Vacation periods or extended parenting times; and,
- (3) Weekends and mid-week days.

For example, one parent may not schedule his or her summer vacation to include July 4th if July 4th is the other parent's holiday that year. As another example, the residential parent may be entitled to have the children on the Easter holiday, even though it falls on the nonresidential parent's alternating weekend. In this case, the nonresidential parent's weekend shall conclude at 6:00 p.m. on Saturday evening.

(B) Illness: It is expected that the parents will follow the parenting time schedule despite any illness of the children, unless both parents agree that this would not be advisable due to the children's condition or contagiousness.

Both parents should use common sense as to a sick child and be sensitive to the child's needs. In the event that a child is ill, medications and instructions for special care shall travel with the child. Each parent should notify the other, as soon as reasonably possible, of any diagnosis, injury, or treatment, as well as the name, address, and phone number of all treatment facilities and medical professionals involved.

Any weekend parenting time that is missed due to the illness of a child shall be made up the following weekend or as the parents may mutually agree. The residential parent shall promptly notify the nonresidential parent of the child's illness prior to the exercise of parenting time. The Court does not expect parents to abuse the intent of this Rule and interfere with the nonresidential parent's time with the children.

(C) Telephone and Mail: Each parent may have reasonable telephone contact with the children during the other parent's parenting time, not to exceed once a day between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m. If the children are not available, the children should return the telephone call.

Each parent shall encourage free communication between the children and the other parent, and shall not do anything to impede or restrict reasonable communication by telephone, mail, or email between the children and the other parent, whether initiated by the children or the other parent. Parents need to be aware that older children and teens text rather than having telephone conversations. Any mail or email between the children and either parent shall be strictly confidential and shall not be opened or read by the other parent.

(D) Cooperation: Both parents shall refrain from criticizing the other parent or arguing with the other parent in the presence of the children or where the children can overhear.

(E) Exchange of Phone Numbers: Each parent must, unless the Court orders otherwise, keep the other parent informed of his or her current telephone number and a telephone number where the children may be reached. This includes the parents' cell phone numbers.

(F) Grace Period: The transporting parent for parenting time shall have a grace period of 15 minutes for pick-up and delivery, if both parents live within 30 miles of each other. If the one-way distance to be traveled is more than 30 miles, the grace period shall be 30 minutes.

In the event that one parent exceeds the grace period, that period of parenting time is forfeited, unless prior notification and arrangements have been made. This rule does not apply in cases where the one parent lives in excess of 30 miles away and suffers an unavoidable breakdown or delay en route, and the parent promptly notifies the other parent by telephone of the delay.

Repeated violations by either parent shall be cause for granting a modification of the parenting order. Parents are to exercise common sense as to weather conditions, traffic accidents, and other unforeseen circumstances.

(G) Transportation: In the event that the parents are unable to reach an agreement regarding transportation, the parent receiving the children shall arrange transportation.

(H) Clothing and Supplies for Children under Age Ten: The residential parent shall send with the children on parenting time sufficient clothing and outerwear appropriate for the season and for any known, planned activities. For the weekend, this shall consist of a minimum of a coat and shoes appropriate for the weather, two extra sets of play clothes, one dress outfit, and underwear, in addition to the clothes the child is wearing at the time of the start of the weekend.

In the case of infants, the residential parent shall send with the children sufficient bottles, formula, and diapers, and shall inform the nonresidential parent of the child's sleeping and eating schedules.

The nonresidential parent shall return all items that are sent with the children at the end of the parenting time.

(I) Children's Activities: Scheduled periods of parenting time shall not be delayed or denied because a child has other activities (with friends, work, lessons, sports, etc.). Parents need to realize the significance of these activities in their children's lives, and flexibility is encouraged. It is the responsibility of the parents to discuss the children's extra-curricular activities in advance, including times, dates, and transportation needs, so that the children are not deprived of activities and maintaining friends. Each parent shall provide the other with copies of any written material (i.e., activity schedules, maps, instructions) that are distributed in connection with the children's activities. The parent who has the children during the time of scheduled activities is responsible for transportation, attendance, or other arrangements. Both parents are encouraged to attend all of their children's activities.

23A.07 Conclusion

Parents are encouraged to allow for flexibility in the foregoing schedule to best suit the changing needs of the children and the employment schedules of the parents. However, absent an order of the Court, the parents shall follow the foregoing schedule, unless there is a clear, mutual understanding between parents to deviate. Any such deviation shall be in writing to document the parents' mutual understanding.

Rule 23B: Long-Distance Parenting Time Guidelines

23B.01 In General

The Court strongly encourages parents to create their own cooperative parenting time schedules tailored to the specific needs of their children, the parents' respective work hours, and the collective needs of each household. To help create a workable schedule, parents are urged to read "Planning for Parenting Time: Ohio's Guide for Parents Living Apart," available on the Domestic Relations website at www.lcdrect.org. There are sample parenting time schedules in the guide.

The long-distance parenting time schedule shall be used when parents reside more than 150 miles apart. For parents who are unable to agree on a parenting schedule, the Court sets forth in this Rule a plan to ensure the minor children have frequent and consistent contact with both parents.

The Court's plan reflects:

- (1) The preservation and development of a close relationship between the children and each parent; and,
- (2) Consideration of the changing developmental needs of the children.

If parents cannot agree on their own plan or the Court's plan due to objections because of special circumstances (such as travel time, work requirements, substance abuse, mental illness, or violence), the parents must be prepared to present specific facts in a hearing for a proposed plan which considers the best interests of the children, not the parents.

23B.02 Summer Parenting Time

(A) For Children Age Four and Older: For children age four and older, the nonresidential parent shall have parenting time either the greater of seven weeks or half of the school summer vacation. School summer vacation is defined as beginning the day after the last day the children attend school, and ending the day before school reconvenes. If the children are not yet of school age, summer vacation will be based on the public school calendar of the district in which the residential parent resides.

The residential parent shall notify the nonresidential parent by March 15th of each year of the dates school summer vacation begins and ends. The nonresidential parent must notify the residential parent in writing by April 30th of each year of the summer parenting time dates. The nonresidential parent's summer parenting time shall not be exercised during the last week before school reconvenes unless agreed by the parents in writing or ordered by the Court.

(B) For Children under Age Four: Summer parenting time for children under the age of four shall be as agreed by the parents in writing or by order of the Court. In considering parenting time for children in this age group, parents should consider the children's age and development, maturity, emotional attachment to each parent, attachment to any siblings and whether or not those siblings are involved in the same parenting time, the degree of familiarity and comfort the children have with the nonresidential parent, and any other relevant factors.

(C) For Children under Age Four with Older Siblings: If a child under the age of four has older siblings, the parenting time shall be scheduled to coincide with the older siblings.

23B.03 Holiday Parenting Time for the Nonresidential Parent

(A) For Children Age Four and Older: The nonresidential parent shall have parenting time during:

- (1) Spring breaks in even years and Thanksgiving in odd years;
- (2) One-half of the Christmas break, including Christmas Day in even years; and,
- (3) One-half of the Christmas break, excluding Christmas Day in odd years.

Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Spring breaks are defined by the school calendar in the district where the residential parent resides, unless the parents agree otherwise in writing.

Father's Day shall be spent with Father and Mother's Day shall be spent with Mother whenever suitable transportation arrangements can be made. Parenting time shall be from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., or as otherwise agreed.

By October 1 of each year, the residential parent shall notify the nonresidential parent in writing as to the dates of Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Spring breaks in the school district where the residential parent resides.

By November 1 of each year, the nonresidential parent shall notify the residential parent in writing as to the following:

- (1) Whether parenting time will be exercised;
- (2) What the travel arrangements will be;
- (3) When the children need be ready for departure; and,
- (4) When the children will be returned.

Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Spring breaks begin at 6:00 p.m. the day school ends and end at 6:00 p.m. the day before school reconvenes. Reasonable deviations from these hours shall be made as appropriate to accommodate travel schedules that are not within a parent's control, such as airline or other public transportation schedules.

(B) For Children under Age Four: Holiday parenting time for children under the age of four shall be as agreed by the Parties in writing, or by order of the Court. In considering parenting time for children in this age group, parents should consider the children's age and development, maturity, emotional attachment to each parent, attachment to any siblings and whether or not those siblings are involved in the same parenting time, the degree of familiarity and comfort the children have with the nonresidential parent, and any other relevant factors.

23B.04 Weekend Parenting Time for the Nonresidential Parent

(A) For Children Two Years Old and Older: Parenting time shall be permitted once per month, if travel time for the minor children is no more than three hours one way. The nonresidential parent must notify the residential parent at least one week in advance if that parent intends to exercise weekend parenting time.

(B) For Children under Age Two: All parenting time for children under age two shall be as agreed by the Parties in writing, or by order of the Court. In considering parenting time for children in this age group, parents should consider the children's age and development, maturity, emotional attachment to each parent, attachment to any siblings and whether or not those siblings are involved in the same parenting time, the degree of familiarity and comfort the children have with the nonresidential parent, and any other relevant factors. As much as possible, parents should strive to achieve parenting time similar to that provided for this age group in the local standard parenting time schedule.

23B.05 Other Parenting Time for the Nonresidential Parent

(A) The nonresidential parent shall notify the residential parent at least two days in advance of any time the nonresidential parent will be in the area and wants a parenting time period. Absent extraordinary circumstances, parenting time shall occur in a manner appropriate to the children's age and development.

(B) The residential parent shall notify the nonresidential parent at least two days in advance when the residential parent and the minor children will be in the area of the nonresidential parent, and parenting time shall be permitted in a manner appropriate to the children's age and development.

23B.06 Rules Regarding Parenting Time

(A) Audio/Visual Communication: Each parent has the right to audio and visual communication (if available) with the children as often as the parents agree. If the parents do not agree, then the nonresidential parent should have these privileges at least twice per week. In addition, a parent may contact children once during a scheduled or agreed parenting time period that is missed. The residential parent has the right to contact children when on vacation with the nonresidential parent as the parents agree. If there is no agreement, then the residential parent has audio/visual communication privileges up to twice per week.

Communications should be made during the normal hours the children are awake, and if the children are unavailable for conversation, each parent shall take the responsibility of seeing that the children timely return the calls. Any time the children are with one parent, the children shall be permitted to communicate with the other parent. Any long distance calls made by children to a parent shall be collect unless the other parent agrees otherwise.

(B) Vacations away from Home: Whenever either parent takes the children on vacation away from that parent's home, that parent shall notify the other parent at least 14 days in advance, in writing, and provide the other parent with a written agenda indicating the vacation destination, phone numbers where the parent and children can be reached, times of arrival and departure, and method of travel.

(C) Support of Parenting Time: If children indicate strong opposition to being with the other parent, it is the responsibility of each parent to appropriately deal with the situation. Each parent shall calmly talk to the children as to the children's reasons, and shall work with the other parent to do what is in the children's best interests, and avoid confrontation or unpleasant scenes.

If the matter is not settled, either parent should seek the immediate assistance of a mental health professional or file a motion. As uncomfortable as this issue may be for a parent, this issue should not go unresolved. It is the absolute affirmative duty of the residential parent to make certain that the children go to the nonresidential parent for the parenting time period.

(D) Address and Telephone Numbers: Unless the Court orders otherwise, each parent must keep the other informed of his or her current residence address and telephone number, and an alternate telephone number in the event of an emergency. A P.O. Box or other address that is used for mail but is not the actual residence does not satisfy this requirement. If mail is only received at a P.O. Box address, that address must also be provided.

(E) Access to School and Medical Records, Day Care Records, and Student Activities: According to Ohio Revised Code Sections 3109.051(H), (I), and (J), the nonresidential parent is entitled to access, under the same terms and conditions under which access is provided to the residential parent, to any record related to the children, and any student activity related to the children, or any public school, private school, or day care that is, or in the future may be, attended by the children.

(1) The parties have failed to adequately cooperate and communicate with regard to issues involving their children, or have been unable to implement a parenting plan or parenting schedule;

(2) Mediation has not been successful or has been determined by the Court to be inappropriate; or,

(3) The appointment of a Parenting Coordinator is in the best interests of the children involved in the proceedings.

(11) The Parenting Coordinator shall not be permitted to give a recommendation or opinion concerning the ultimate issue of fact, law, or mixed issue of fact and law as to allocation of parental rights and responsibilities, primary physical residence, or visitation.

(12) No Parenting Coordinator shall be held liable for civil damages for any act or omission in the scope of the Parenting Coordinator's employment or function, unless such person acted in bad faith or with malicious purpose, or in a manner exhibiting wanton and willful disregard of the rights, safety, or property of another.
