NOTICE REGARDING COURT EMPLOYEES PROVIDING LEGAL ADVICE

Court employees, including the Judge and Magistrates, are not permitted to give legal advice. Non-lawyer staff could be prosecuted for practicing law without a license. The Code of Judicial Conduct prohibits the Judge and Magistrates from giving legal advice. Court employees cannot tell you if the content of any filing is adequate or if it will satisfy legal requirements.

You may wish to consult with an attorney, Legal Aid, or the Lake County Bar Association lawyer referral service for legal advice. Their phone numbers are:

Legal Aid Society of Cleveland: (440) 352-6200
Lake County Bar Association: (440) 350-5800

If we do not answer your question, it is not because we do not want to help you. Instead, we are following Ohio law and the Code of Judicial Conduct, which prohibits us from giving legal advice.

Thank you for your understanding.

Judge Colleen A. Falkowski
